

The Medical Center at Albany
Community Health Needs Assessment
Activities 2018-2020

Community Health Needs Assessment Activities

Obesity

- October 19 & 20, 2018 Foot Hills Festival – Offered participants information regarding weight loss, stroke prevention and cancer prevention.
- June 21, 2019-Longest Day of Play-Clinical worked longest day of play and set up a booth with various health related to children. The focus of the Longest Day of Play is to encourage activity in children.
- October 18 & 19, 2019 Foot Hills Festival – Offered participants information regarding weight loss, stroke prevention and cancer prevention. 70 participants

Cardiovascular/Heart Disease/Hypertension

- June 14, 2018 Clinton County Health Fair – Offered participants weight, blood pressure, O₂ Saturation and Body Mass Index.
- October 19 & 20, 2018 Foot Hills Festival – Offered participants information regarding weight loss, stroke prevention and cancer prevention.
- February 18, 2019 Hoops for Health – Distributed educational material re: Early Heart Attack Care (EHAC). Participants were educated on the signs & symptoms of a heart attack for men and women as well as the importance of calling 911. ~200 in attendance; 18 received individual EHAC education.
- February 20, 2019 Senture Health Fair - Distributed educational material re: Early Heart Attack Care (EHAC). Participants were educated on the signs & symptoms of a heart attack for men and women as well as the importance of calling 911. ~400 in attendance; 65 received individual EHAC education.
- June 11, 2019 Clinton County Fair-Provided Education on Cardiovascular/Heart Disease/Hypertension-Blood Pressure Checks, BMI, O₂ stats. 22 participants

Cancer

- October 19 & 20, 2018 Foot Hills Festival – Offered participants information regarding weight loss, stroke prevention and cancer prevention.
- May 16, 2018 Keystone Food Health Fair – Distributed educational materials and promotional items promoting awareness and preventative screenings for Breast & Colon Cancer. ~275 in attendance

Substance Abuse/Mental Health

- September 20, 2019 Truth and Consequences: The Choice is Yours- Focus on consequences of substance and alcohol abuse in high school students-240 Students

Other

- April 16, 2019 Community Baby Shower-Demonstrated and discussed the importance of CPR and the importance of the Heimlich maneuver on infants. Allowed parents to perform hands on CPR on manikin.